So, what's the attire? Dress in what makes you want to have a great time – think festive or party chic. Ladies can wear a cocktail or party dress, white jeans, or a romper. Guys – bring out the suit and tie if you feel inclined but know you're just as welcome in slacks and a sport coat. If you can sprinkle in some navy and gold to stay on theme, please do, and remember to bring your dancing shoes.

What not to wear? A frown or any clothing that impedes your ability to raise your bid number!
